Course Description

This course covers the economics of government and government policies in the United States. It introduces students to the economic basis for government activity, government expenditures and policy issues in the United States, theory and structure of taxation, and state and local government finance.

This course requires completion of a team research project focusing on one public policy issue. The project consists of a research stage, several presentations, and a written paper/report.

Course Objectives

By the end of the semester, students should be able to:
1) Identify the objectives of various levels of government in the United States;
2) Deconstruct various theories of public choice and of alternative tax systems;
3) Appraise expenditures and tax revenues at various levels of government;
4) Defend an analysis of one fiscal policy proposal orally in front of the class;
5) Evaluate the effectiveness of one policy proposal in a written format as a research paper;
6) Relate their own thinking and writing as well as work in a team to contribute to the team project.

Due Dates and Late Policy

Due dates are strictly enforced. Late submissions will be heavily penalized. The instructor reserves the right to change dates accordingly as the semester progresses. All changes will be communicated in an appropriate manner.

Email and HuskyCT

I will communicate with you via your UConn email address (usually firstname.lastname@uconn.edu). It is your responsibility to check this email account for messages. If you have a personal email address that you prefer to use, forward your UConn email to that address.

I will use HuskyCT to communicate any developments in our class matters, i.e. new materials, snow days cancelations, and other matters pertaining to the whole class will be communicated through HuskyCT. It is your responsibility to stay tuned to our class portal.

Student Responsibilities and Resources

As a member of the University of Connecticut student community, you are held to certain standards and academic policies. In addition, there are numerous resources available to help you succeed in your academic work. Review these important standards, policies and resources, which include:

- The Student Code
  - Academic Integrity
  - Resources on Avoiding Cheating and Plagiarism
- Copyrighted Materials
- Netiquette and Communication
- Adding or Dropping a Course
- Academic Calendar
- Policy Against Discrimination, Harassment and Inappropriate Romantic Relationships
- Sexual Assault Reporting Policy

Students with Disabilities

Students needing special accommodations should work with the University's Center for Students with Disabilities (CSD). You may contact CSD by calling (860) 486-2020 or by emailing csd@uconn.edu. If your request for accommodation is approved, CSD will send an accommodation letter directly to your instructor(s) so that special arrangements can be made. (Note: Student requests for accommodation must be filed each semester.)

Blackboard measures and evaluates accessibility using two sets of standards: the WCAG 2.0 standards issued by the World Wide Web Consortium (W3C) and Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act issued in the United States federal government.” (Retrieved March 24, 2013 from Blackboard's website)

Evaluation of the Course

Students will be provided an opportunity to evaluate instruction in this course using the University's standard procedures, which are administered by the Office of Institutional Research and Effectiveness (OIRE).

Additional informal formative surveys may also be administered within the course as an optional evaluation tool.

WRITING TUTORING IN THE SOURCE FOR ACTIVE LEARNING, JEREMY RICHARD LIBRARY

Writing tutoring will begin on Monday, Feb. 4 and end on Friday, May 3.

Spring 2019 schedule: Monday-Thursday 10 am-7 pm
Friday 11 am-3 pm

Our appointments are made online at http://advapp.uconn.edu.

- Go to the website and select “The Source (Stamford Writing Center & Q Center)” in the drop-down menu and click “Continue.”
- In the next screen, log on with your UCONN NetID (If you don’t know your NetID and password, you need to visit http://netid.uconn.edu to find out and activate it).
- Following the instructions after you log on, schedule your appointment (no more than two 30-minute appointments per day).
- Meet with your tutor in the Learning Commons area of the Jeremy Richard Library.

After you make an appointment online, you will receive an email confirmation. Please make sure to cancel your appointment online if you realize you cannot keep it. You can meet with your writing consultant for a 30-minute one-on-one session in the library. You should bring the assignment sheet and instructions to your session, if coming for an assignment.

Can’t visit the Source during the scheduled hours?

To reach online, email your essay or assignment to uconn.stamford.writing.center@gmail.com, along with the following information:

- What kind of essay/assignment are you submitting, and for what class?
- Was there a prompt given for this assignment? If so, include it.
- When is the essay/assignment due? *Please note: we require at least two days to review your assignment.
